It reads as follows: "The Governor vesterday sifernoon signed an insurance bill which provides that it shall be lawfuf for any life, fire and marine insurance company, organized under any of the laws of this State and ized under any set the laws of this State and transacting business in other States, to invasted fund required to meet its obligations incurred in such State respecting in the same class of securities in there States that such corporations are by law allowed to invest in this State. But there are that has been comparated as authorizing any such corporation to lean moneys on mortigage upon real estate without the limits as this State and States adjacent thereto. This is now a law. It is very asrottly drawn. Of careful examination it will be seen that it sufficient in the comparison to invest in District of Columbia bonds."
